A Jewell Cardinal Invades Bearcat Lair

William Jewell Eleven to Clash with Maryville Teachers for Grid Thrills in the Homecoming Game

The Bearcat sulks in his lair. He paces to and fro in his den. He growls. He snarls. He viciously bares his claws. He crouches to make a spring.

An invader approaches. Soaring and circling above is a brilliant Cardinal—a monstrous bird, haughty and powerful, flushed with its supremacy of by-gone days and flaunting its heralded prowess in the very face of a gnarling foe.

The Bearcat crouches lower, its eagle eye following every move of the brilliant hued bird. He hears the rumbling cheers of a loyal student body. He sees the encouraging faces of an eager faculty. He feels the thrill and pleading heartbeats of "Old Grads" and former Bearcats. He watches the expectant faces of a mass of visiting teachers. On every side he senses encouragement from loyal supporters.

In all the splendor of its illustrious progenitors the Red Bird circles, and soars, and dips. From the bandstand floats the heart-throbbing notes, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, Tender, fair, and true; Grateful sons, with love unfailing, All their vows renew."

The husky voice of a Green and White yell leader crashes the moment's stillness. The Red Bird swoops towards the ground. Its claws are unbarred. Determination gleams from its eyes. The stands rock. The air is rent with a mighty, "EAT 'EM UP BEARCATS!" The Bearcat crouches, claws the dirt, and with a spring pounces upon the mighty Red Bird. A gnarl, a growl, a shriek, a shrill cry—

And the fight is on. For the first time in six years the Northwest Missouri Teachers College Bearcats meet the William Jewell Cardinals on the gridiron. Seldom, if ever, has a Bearcat grid team defeated the Cardinals before today.

Spice will be added to the conflict this afternoon because of the past fierce but friendly rivalry of the opposing coaches. Coach Lawrence, Bearcat mentor, has played many a game against "Dad" Bowles Jewell eleven while Lawrence was a student at Missouri Wesleyan. While he was playing there "Lefty" Davis, arch athletic enemy of anything from Liberty and the Jewell campus, was coaching the Methodists. Now Davis is on the Bearcat coaching staff helping Lawrence—and such a coaching combination is going to make it hard on the visiting Baptists. Another point of interest is the fact that W. N. "Bill" Collins, (Continued on Page 3)

ALMA MATER

Let your voices loudly ring,
Echo far and near,
Song of praise thy children singing
To thy mem'ry dear.

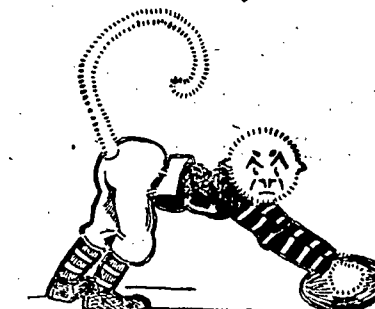

Chorus:

Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Tender, fair, and true;
Grateful sons, with love unfailing
All their vows renew.

Years may dim our recollection,
Time its change may bring,
Still thy name in fond affection,
Evermore we sing.

Chorus:

Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Tender, fair, and true;
Grateful sons, with love unfailing
All their vows renew.

"Dear Mr. Lamkin,
I wish to congratulate you and the College on your selection of "Lefty" Davis as a coach. It has been my experience to have played on numerous teams and we always found his teams to be real players and the best of sports.
Yours truly,
C. T. Richards."

Astronomy Class "Sees More Stars"

The class in astronomy went on another observation trip Tuesday evening. The view was "bad" because of drifting clouds and a quite high wind which kept the telescope in motion. Nevertheless, it was possible to get a very good view of the moon; Jupiter and three of its moons; Mars, the big star in the handle of the dipper and Capella.

"Where But America" Presented Last Week

The Dramatic Club met last Friday in the Auditorium and gave a one-act play entitled, "Where But America." Before the presentation of the play scheduled for the hour, Miss Criswell gave a resume of the main points to be observed in judging a play, as a basis for further criticism in the class. The play, "Where But in America," was written by Oscar Wilft, and directed by Miss Criswell. The cast was as follows:

Bob Espenhayne Paschal Monk
Mollie Espenhayne Lois Dakan
Hilda, the maid Audrey Stiwallt
The scene of the play is laid in the dining room of a modern city apartment. The Espenhaynes are seated at dinner, discussing a move to a more exclusive neighborhood and carefully considering the attitude of Hilda, their gem of a maid, in the event of such a change. Such consideration is unnecessary, however, when Hilda announces that she is a partner in the syndicate which controls that particular property.

The acting was, on the whole, quite superior. Paschal Monk, as Bob Espenhayne, took the part of a sophisticated gentleman in prosperous circumstances, in a very creditable manner, at the same time revealing, in a humorous fashion, little touches of human nature, not to say man nature. Lois Dakan, as the over-ambitious and somewhat superficial wife of Bob Espenhayne, revealed considerable art, as well as artifice, in the way in which she managed her husband and her maid. Her appearance was pleasing and her part well interpreted.

The role of Hilda, the clever little Swedish maid, was played by Audrey Stiwallt. Her dialect was good and her part well done.

The simple setting on the front of the stage with the curtain as a background, was very fitting and made a pleasing impression.

Those assisting the cast in presenting the play were: stage-manager, Vada Cliser; property, Alice Hastings; scenery, Raymond, Brazelton; prompter, Margie Morris.

At the next meeting of the Club on October 21st, the play to be presented will be "Riders to the Sea," by Synge. The cast will be as follows:

Maurya Mary Elizabeth Jones
Bartley William Gaugh
Cathleen Katherine Mills
Nora Cleola Dawson
Old George Pflaumer
Another man Leland Medsker
Women Lillian Ramsbottom
Geneva Brown, Dorothy Russell, and Lola Dowden.

Those assisting in presenting the play will be: stage manager, Ruth Jensen; property man, Roy Dickman; prompter, Grace Horn.

W. A. A. Invites 20 In Organization

The W. A. A. held its initiation party Tuesday evening in the gymnasium. The feature of the entertainment was dancing and games. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served.

There were about twenty new members taken in. They were:

Mary M. Meyer, Cleola Dawson, Alice Nelson, Lois Moore, Zoa Seyster, Marjorie Constable, Ruth Harding, Juanita March, Maudia Waltemath, Lois Smith, Hazel Streeter, Leo Lockhart, Ruby Hawkes, Pauline Gryer, Arlene Gabbart, Martha Bront, Edith Moore, Julia Carpenter, Eleanor McGinney, Ruth McKey, Leola Miller, Florence Wray, and Katherine Wray.

The Bearcat Football Squad at a Glance

Thirty-three men are reporting regularly at the State Teachers College football field to Coaches H. F. Lawrence and Earl ("Lefty") Davis, trying for a position on the varsity eleven. WOULD PLACE ROLLA IN THE M. I. A. A. LOOP

Announcement Made by President of University of Missouri—Tigers Would Play Title Eleven.

According to the Cape Girardeau Missourian, a movement is under way to transfer the Rolla School of Mines from its present athletic conference to the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association, composed of the five teachers colleges.

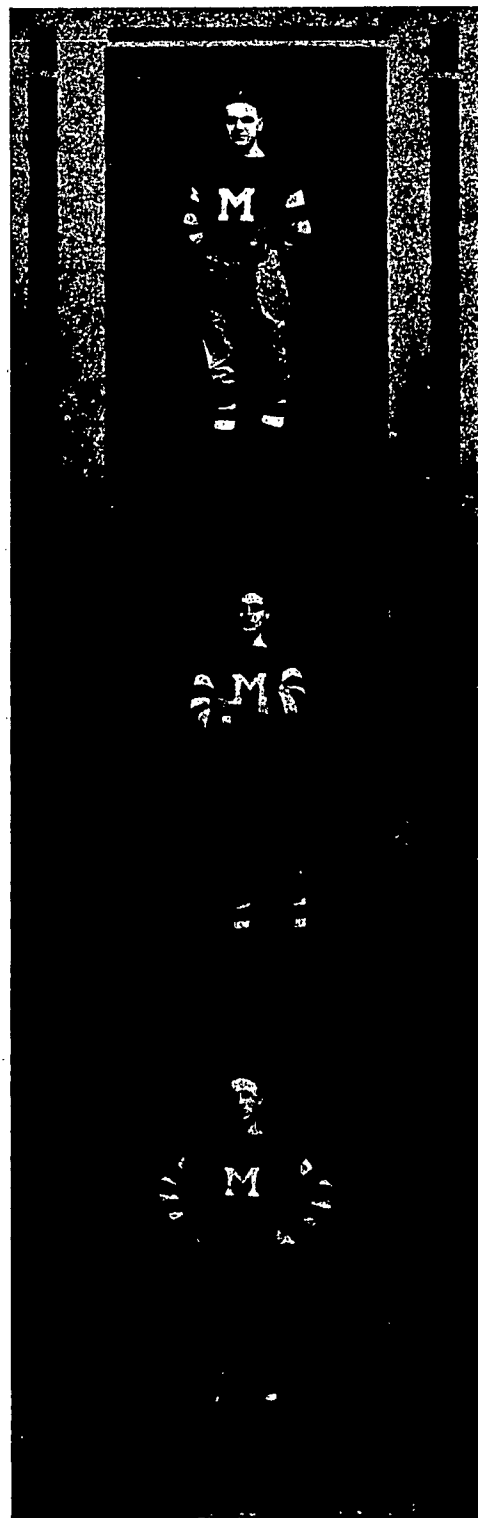

Announcement of this movement was made by Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Missouri, at a conference held last Saturday in Columbia with the presidents of the five teachers colleges.

The addition of Rolla would give this conference six athletic teams instead of its present five. Furthermore, the University of Missouri is planning to give its first game in the fall football schedule to the championship team of the M. I. A. A. Conference, for the preceding year.

20 Cardinals Entrain for Bearcat Lair

Five Lettermen, A Triple-Threat Man
Among Girdders of "Dad" Bowles
For Homecoming Game With William Jewell.

By VERNON E. MOORE
William Jewell College.

Liberty, Mo., Oct. 14—(Special)—
Twenty wearers of the Cardinal jerseys will invade Maryville today to furnish the competition for the Northwest Missouri Teachers in their annual homecoming football game. These twenty men represent only two-fifths of the William Jewell squad at the venerable old Missouri college at Liberty, for there has been about fifty out for every practice session for the entire school year.

These Cardinals were able to take the measure of the Tarkio team here two weeks ago, registering a blistering defeat for the up-state eleven, 28 to 0. Not an injury has marred the playing strength of the team since that battle and there should be a real game in store for Maryville fans.

It will be the first time since the break-up of the old M. I. A. A., that a William Jewell team has been pitted against Maryville or any other member of the new teachers' college conference.

Five Lettermen.

Only five lettermen will be in action for the Jewell eleven this Friday because of the premature injury of Turner, diminutive half-back prior to the Tarkio game. These men are: Williams, end; Grissom, captain and tackle; Walker, quarter-back; Keller, half-back; and Robertson, fullback.

However, in these lettermen, Jewell has the steadying force for the wealth of new material which will grace the line-up register. In Williams, Jewell has a dependable end on both offense and defense, on the same end of the line as that played by Grissom, a tower of strength at left tackle.

Walker, quarterback, will do the punting for the Jewell crew. In the last game with Tarkio he punted for an average of forty-one yards. He is the triple-threat man of the Jewell aggregation, running well and fast, punting like a veteran, and passing with deadly accuracy.

In Keller, diminutive half-back, Bowles and Collins will place much confidence to carry the ball, while Robertson, massive fullback will be expected to puncture the Maryville line as he did the Tarkio line for five-yard gains.

Many Sophomores.

The other men in the line-up are sophomores with three exceptions, Spradley, Dumphly, and Petty, and have had experience under Jewell coaching last year. The sophomores who are making the grade this year are Thompson, Jordan, Toulson, and Davis. These men have gained much from the first game of college football that they have played and will perform like veterans if their practice sessions are symbolic of what they will do in the game.

Bowles and Collins Are Cardinal Coaches

"Dad" Bowles Has Been at William Jewell Fifteen Years—Collins Formerly at Missouri Wesleyan.

Liberty, Mo., Oct. 14—(Special)—
Jewell mentors, Coach R. E. ("Dad") Bowles and W. N. ("Bill") Collins, former William Jewell and University of Missouri stars respectively, have formed the coaching duet at William Jewell for the past two years.

Collins was the later arrival and addition to the Jewell coaching staff, when at the beginning of the 1926-'27 school year he was drafted into the ranks from the position of head coach at Missouri Wesleyan, Cameron, Mo., to the position of associate coach at William Jewell.

While at Missouri Wesleyan he coached the conference championship team of 1925. The year prior to that his team held second rank in the conference standings. Before going to Missouri Wesleyan he was coach of the Liberty high school team. Before beginning his coaching career he was a regular member of the Missouri Tiger backfield for three years.

"Dad" Bowles, a former William Jewell star, has been coaching at William Jewell for the past fifteen years. In that time he has won more championships in all branches of sport than any other coach in the Missouri College Union and up until a year ago had won more championships than all of the coaches combined.

Cardinals Invade Bearcat Lair

former M. U. Star and Wesleyan coach, is now with "Dad" Bowles at William Jewell.

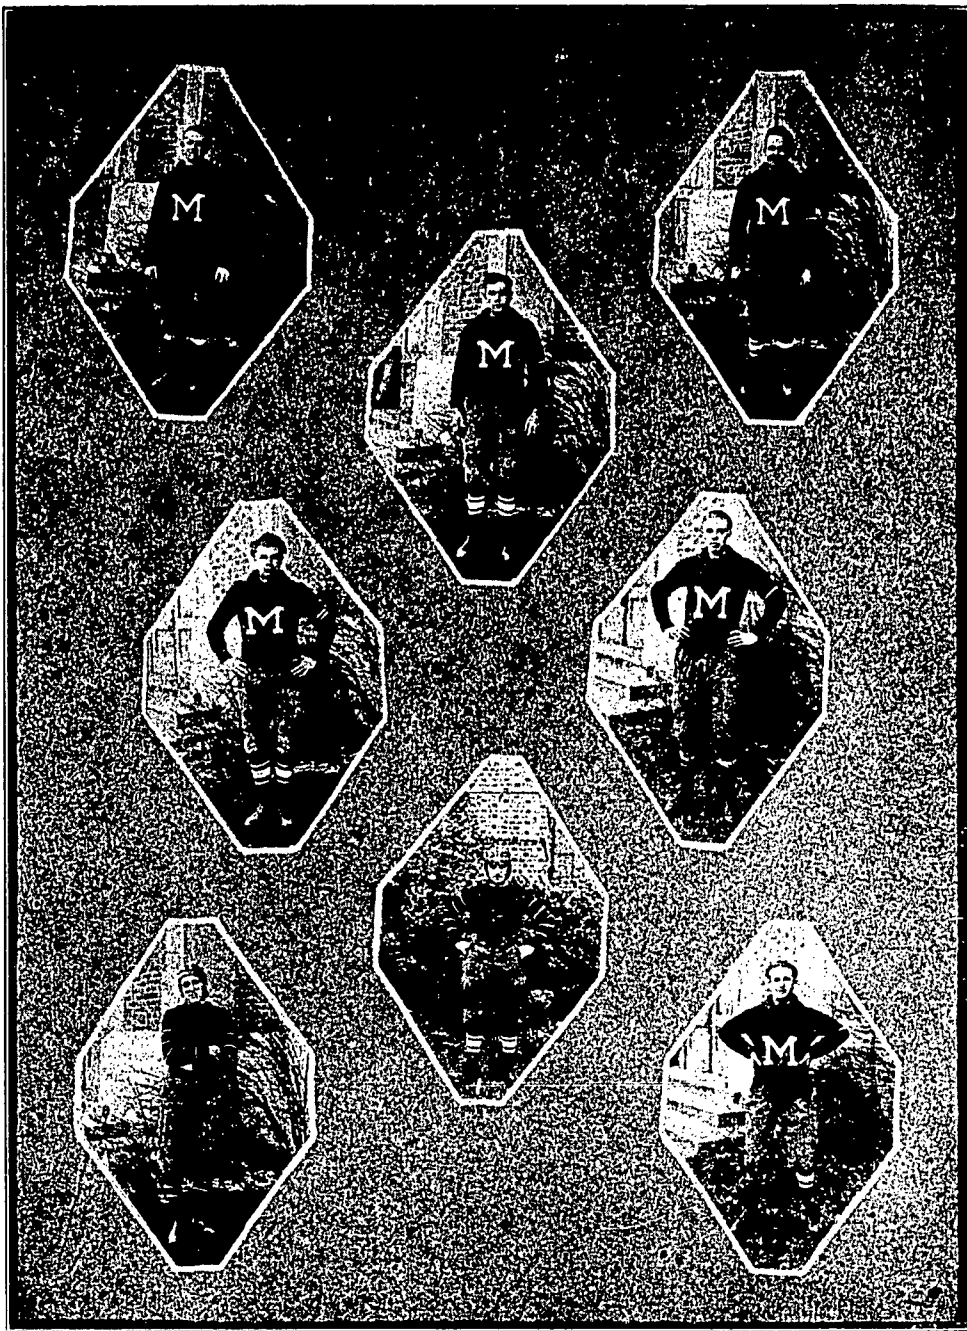

The Bearcats go into the game today to fight for a victory for their school and student body and alumni. They enter the fray determined to uphold the honor of M. I. A. A. against M. C. U. foe. In the background of their mind they have revenge for Cardinal victories of by-gone years.

The Cardinals have a powerful aggregation. They are clean, aggressive, and persistent fighters. When Bearcat and Cardinal mix, there's bound to be a fight. May the best team win—and may that team be the Bearcats.

Cardinal Captain Is Playing Fourth Year

Philip Grissom, 185-Pound Tackle,
Came to William Jewell From Carthage High School.

Liberty, Mo., Oct. 14—(Special)—
Of the twenty Cardinals of the William Jewell football team who play the Bearcats at Maryville today, the captain, Philip ("Meat") Grissom, has had three previous years experience.

He has played a powerful offensive and defensive game for Jewell in all of the games he has entered the last three seasons and proved himself a leader of his men on the playing field this year during the recent combat with Tarkio here two weeks ago Friday. In this game, the first of the season, the Cardinals were able to swamp the up-state eleven, 28 to 0.

Grissom, 185-pound left tackle, came to William Jewell four years ago from Carthage high school where he had played four years of interscholastic football. Three years his high school team was the champion of the Southwest Conference.

He suffered an injury three years ago in the Baker-William Jewell tilt in Kansas City which handicapped his playing the following year. That old injury has healed and he will be seen on the field directing his men with a smartness only noticeable in a veteran of many gridiron battles.
